Carl,

We are moving along on our collecting. We have pretty much filled up our disks, and want to move to larger and larger stuff. Can I borrow that 500GB robot that you mentioned? It would allow me to go the next step without laying out serious bucks. I could give it back when you needed it.

Does it connect to a sun?

Is this a floor pedestal thang that holds 53 DLT cart tapes for a total of .5TB?
